REPORT ON CENSUS

Figures Show County Population As 109,298

San Mateo county's 1940 population figure is 109,298, according to statistics released Monday at Sacramento by E. L. Erwin, census manager for the eighth area.

Like most previous census bureau releases, the news was greeted with disappointment. Estimates had run between 135,000 and 150,000.

"They're way low," declared County Clerk W. H. Augustus, whose estimates of population based on the 1930 ratio between registration and census were responsible for the hopeful forecast.

He pointed out that there are nearly 60,000 registered in the county, with more coming. Using a 2.4 ratio, the indicated population is 144,000.

The major significance of the census figure, however, was in the fact that the county had passed the 100,000 mark. This entitles the county to a jury commissioner. It is anticipated that three of the justice courts will have sufficient population in their jurisdictions to increase the scope of cases which may be tried therein.

Despite disappointment in the 109,298 figure, it was an increase of 31,893 in 10 years—probably one of the record gains in the state. It was a 41 per cent increase.

The figures meant that the county had nearly duplicated a gain of 40,624 in the 1920-30 period. (Continued on Page 6)

Youngster's Hand Injured In Wringer

Two broken fingers and a badly smashed hand sent Walter Ziese, 7-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Ziese, 166 Winchester street, to the Villa sanitarium, Friday morning.

Daly City police reported that the little boy caught his hand in the wringer of a washing machine. A police car took him to the hospital for treatment.

Elect R. L. Crane President of Board

R. L. Crane, superintendent of the Jefferson (Daly City-Colma-Lawndale) elementary school district, Friday was elected president of the San Mateo County Board of Education to succeed Andrew Spinas of Redwood City.

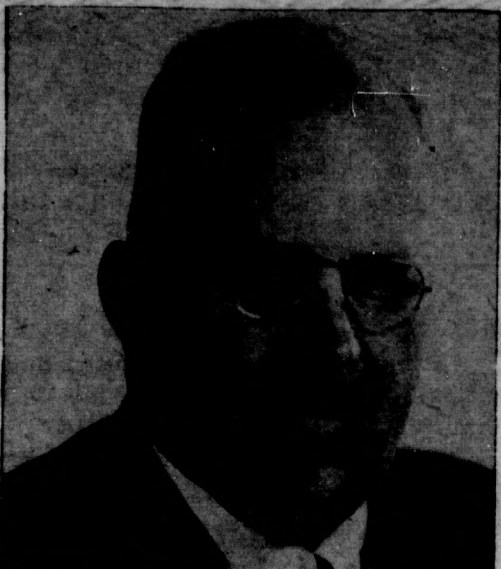

The board held its annual election in Redwood City at the office of Miss Pansy Jewett Abbott, county school superintendent.

Crane possesses a long background of educational experience and is well known for his activities in the field. As new head of San Mateo county's policy-making and coordinating board, Crane's range of educational effort will be a wide one.

Crane has held the position of superintendent of schools here since May, 1931, and was formerly superintendent of schools in Hillsborough. He makes his home at 140 Woodrow street, Daly City.

A prominent civic figure here, Crane is a member of both Daly City Post No. 410, American Legion, and Colma Vista Grande Aerie No. 1848, Fraternal Order of Eagles.

Quarrel Results In Knife Wounds

Fred W. Canaris, 57-year-old Daly City carpenter, lay in Community hospital today with deep knife wounds in his chest as the result of a quarrel at his home, 243 Los Olivos avenue, last Monday evening.

His housekeeper, Miss Goreta Kilroy was arraigned yesterday morning before Judge Wade H. Clay on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon. Her bail was set at $1000 cash or $2000 bond.

Canaris was stabbed with a six-inch carving knife, ground to a fourth-inch thickness, during what Daly City police described as a drinking quarrel. In addition to the chest wounds, Canaris' finger was badly slashed and he suffered scalp wounds.

Preliminary hearing on Miss Kilroy's case will be conducted at 3:30 p. m., next Tuesday.

Invite Public To Participate In Observance

National Recreation Week will be celebrated in Daly City July 21-27, when leisure-time units throughout the country join in observance of recreational activities. The public is cordially urged to participate.

One entire day during the week, July 26, has been set aside as Joseph E. Lee Day, in honor of the Chicago civic leader whose life-work in the interests of recreation gave him the title of Father of Parks and Playgrounds.

Bruce H. Boynton, local WPA Recreation director, announced today that the Daly City department has planned a number of special activities for the week. Open house will be held every day at all recreation centers in the city, with games, tournaments and special demonstrations planned.

Particularly interesting are the athletic programs which will be held in the high school gymnasium in the evenings. In the afternoons, mothers are urged to attend the craft centers, where various handicraft classes are in progress.

"Whether you knit, paint or play football," said Boynton today, "there is a leisure-time activity planned for you. Visit our classes during open house all of next week, and see what this department is doing in Daly City."

Further details of the week's program will be announced in the next issue of The Record.

Former Engineer Files Suit Against City

Julius F. Castelan, former Daly City engineer, filed suit last Wednesday in Superior Court in Redwood City for $7,750 he claimed due him for services rendered the city during his term of office.

Castelan's claim was denied by resolution of the city council last Monday evening, preceding the filing of the suit.

Youngster Saved In Near Tragedy

A small youngster's cries saved him from possible death early last week, as a huge caterpillar on the WPA South End streets job tore down the hedge in which he was hidden.

Warned to keep away from the machines, the little boy had climbed up into the bushes where he could not be seen. As the hedge crashed to the earth he was imprisoned in the debris.

Monkey Is A Monkey—

Eight days of freedom ended today for Cleopatra the rhesus monkey, who was taken from her native Calcutta to face the hazardous life of university experimental work in America.

Apparently fearing vivisection, Cleopatra escaped in Belmont July 3 and spent Independence Day and those thereafter living in the Belmont tree-tops, subsisting on stolen fruit.

But the city poundman made a monkey out of Cleopatra. He baited a trap with watermelon and Cleo couldn't resist the temptation.

New Payroll—

A $2,000,000 payroll in San Mateo county will result from the transfer of United Airlines' western headquarters from Oakland airport to Mills Field and the establishment of the port as national terminal for 20 new four-motored passenger ships next spring, it was revealed this week.

Within a short time 538 men will be employed to handle the western operations base. Another 250 men will take positions next spring.

Flying Dentist—

They read a newspaper by the light of the midnight sun. They flew over the Arctic Circle and set foot on Alaskan tundra, which hugs the frozen, ground like a fur.

That alone made the 11-day, 6600-mile Northern flight of Burlingame's two flying dentists worth-while.

The pilot-pair returned this week from British Columbia, Yukon and Alaskan Territories in a 105 Stinson plane, the same one in which they made a vacation flight to Central America in March.

Banana Tree—

Anticipating a chore of "peddling bananas on the highway" is Mrs. Ralph H. Handy of Redwood City.

A ten-year-old banana tree which "never did that before" has just bloomed in her frontyard, and now small bananas are making their appearance.

Award Prizes At Bible School

Prizes for the best examples of handicraft of a religious nature were awarded to students Friday morning, as the summer vacation school sponsored by Our Lady of Perpetual Help church came to a close.

Long tables filled with samples of the children's work made it difficult for the judges to select the winners.

Grammar school children attended the school, which has been conducted for the past four weeks. (Continued on Page 3)

Approximately fifteen guests enjoyed refreshments later from an attractive table which used the "dream house" pattern as a motif and had sweet peas as a centerpiece.

Braumoellers Return From Motoring Tour

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Braumoeller, 433 Santa Barbara avenue, accompanied by their two sons, Jim and Bill, and Mrs. Braumoeller's mother, Mrs. A. Schlink, of Lodi, returned last week from an interesting motor tour.

Visiting friends and relatives many places enroute, the Braumoeller family travelled as far East as Youngstown, Ohio. During their two-weeks vacation, they stopped at many points of interest, including Boulder Dam.

"It seems good to be back in Daly City," Mrs. Braumoeller, who is employed in the city clerk's office at the city hall, said today. "Although Boulder Dam is a wonderful sight, the weather was uncomfortably hot, registering 105 degrees there at eight o'clock at night."

Serve Chicken In Style

If anyone should ask me how to serve chicken in the most attractive and "dressy" fashion, I'd be inclined to answer "serve it planked." It makes a beautiful and tempting dinner, and if there's truth in the statement that "the eye eats first and waits on neither appetite nor manners," a planked chicken dinner will practically disappear before it reaches its place on the table.

There isn't a better dish for a company dinner, or for some special occasion family meal. A plank, for cooking, is not an expensive piece of equipment and it offers unlimited opportunities for dressing up an otherwise simple meal of steak, or fish, or ham or vegetables.

It's an easy to plank foods as it is to broil them, for broiling is really all it is. It's the method of serving that distinguishes planked dinners from any other broiled meal. And broiling is fun when you've a modern electric range to do a smokeless, greaseless job of cooking for you. Electric heat is clean and convenient; the new-type broiler pans are practically smokeless, and there's no danger of foods or grease "catching fire." The flavor of electrically broiled foods makes them a mealtime triumph. They're as delicious as the old time charcoal broiled foods.

Planked Chicken

Quarter a 2½-pound chicken. Wipe with a damp cloth and dry thoroughly. Brush chicken with melted fat or salad oil and place skin side down, on broiler pan. Set the electric thermostat at the highest point and preheat the broiler until the electric unit is glowing, cherry red. Place broiler pan in the oven so the chicken is about 5 inches below the broiling unit. Broil with the oven door slightly ajar, about 15 minutes on each side. Season with salt and white pepper. Heat the plank thoroughly, and brush with oil. Place chicken on plank and arrange a border of fluffy boiled rice around the edge. Brush rice lightly with melted butter. At each end place 2 toasted pear halves. Brown under the broiler. Garnish with cubes of current jelly and sprigs of mint just before serving.

To make the Toasted Pears, drain halves of canned pears thoroughly and dry on paper towelling. Combine 1 tablespoon melted butter with ½ cup fine cornflake crumbs. Dip the pears in the crumbs, sprinkle lightly with lemon juice and arrange on the plank, hollow side up. Brown lightly in broiler. Just before serving place a cube of current jelly in each pear half.

This is an excellent menu for a hot summer Sunday. The preparation is simple and the service is, too; with a minimum amount of time and effort it provides an eye-catching, appetite-compelling dinner. You'll be serving planked meals often, when you've discovered how quickly and easily they're prepared, and how handsomely they reward your efforts!

FLUORESCENT

What you ought to know about this new Light Source

You hear much about Fluorescent Lighting. You see these slim, luminous tubes of light being used more and more. You see them creating richly glowing color effects on Treasure Island. You see them adding a smartly modern touch to restaurants, theatres, shops and to industrial plants large and small.

WHAT IS FLUORESCENT LIGHT?

WHAT ABOUT THIS NEW LIGHT SOURCE? All fluorescent lamps producing this amazingly soft, cool light are tubular in shape and of various lengths and diameters. Unlike ordinary incandescent lamps they have no filament. Light is produced by electricity passing through mercury vapor, creating a radiation which acts on fluorescent (luminous) powders with which the inside of the tubes are coated. These powders are highly efficient converters of this radiation into light.

IS IT PRACTICAL FOR USE EVERYWHERE?

Fluorescent lighting is proving to be highly practical in commercial and industrial use where all factors of proper installation have been considered and carried out. It has many advantages. Fixtures designed for its use are smartly modern in appearance. Its tubular lamp makes it ideal for installation in recesses or concealed lighting. It has an amazing efficiency in producing pure colored light. The fluorescent daylight and white lamps have definitely proved advantages in color matching, color discrimination and high level lighting. And because these new lamps are extraordinarily cool they serve as an excellent "plus" light source in display cases and in small rooms or booths where a high level of lighting by other means might add undesirable or uncomfortable heat.

WHAT IS ITS VALUE IN COMMERCIAL AND INDUSTRIAL USES?

Fluorescent lighting has added modern showmanship to many businesses with dramatic effect lighting. It attracts attention and is especially valuable in displays where daylight color value helps sell merchandise. Industrial concerns realize its value as a "plus" light source for easier seeing where production requires fine assembly, intricate operation and close inspection.

HOW TO BUY FLUORESCENT LIGHTING!

Fluorescent lighting is so new and fixtures are so numerous that it is hard for the inexperienced buyer to know what to buy. At present, these fixtures are more expensive than incandescent fixtures so that getting your money's worth is important. Installation of proper auxiliary equipment is likewise important because Fluorescent Lighting is not a ready-made package but should be tailored to the lighting task it is to perform.

Before you buy, check with experienced lighting engineers or specialists. This company, which does not sell fluorescent lighting fixtures, will be glad to help and advise any customer in selecting proper fluorescent fixtures to provide the right kind of light at the lowest cost. Our staff of skilled lighting advisors are always available without cost or obligation.

Elementary School Enrollment Increases

Elementary schools in San Mateo county show a substantial increase in attendance during the past year, with an average daily enrollment of 10,083.

This is a significant fact, considering that state and national trends are downward, according to Miss Pansy Jewett Abbott, county superintendent of schools.

All of the larger cities in the county show a decrease in attendance, while the medium-sized cities and small districts show increases which more than offset the rather large decrease in the thickly populated areas.

Kindergarten classes are increasing in size; and a continued increase in the elementary schools of San Mateo county next year is expected.

New Chrysler Enamel Finish Retains Lustre

"If you happen to be the kind of motorist who gets a real thrill out of cleaning the family car Sunday morning, you should be interested in the advantages of Chrysler's new baked enamel finish," advised A. L. Timossi, Chrysler-Plymouth dealer here.

"Nearly everyone wants an automobile that retains its gleaming lustre, not for the first six months or so, but permanently," said Timossi at his showrooms, 6465 Mission street. "The new type of baked enamels as used on Chrysler automobiles actually improves with age. It holds the lustre permanently, will not fade, and is far easier to keep clean, since it requires no back-breaking rubbing or polishing. Furthermore, it will not rub off or wear away.

"Anyone who has polished a lacquered car will know that some of the lacquer comes off on the cleaning rag, which means that constant rubbing will eventually wear the lacquer away until the base metal is exposed. With Chrysler's baked plastic enamel, however, the use of abrasives, cleaning compound and excessive rubbing and polishing are unnecessary. Road dust and scum generally can be removed with cold water or a very mild cleaning preparation and the original lustre is preserved. Expensive waxing and polishing are not required. Records in our service department show that it costs approximately 75 per cent less to keep a car finished with baked plastic enamel clean and lustrous than the average car.

"The process of applying baked enamel," continued Timossi, "is an elaborate one but results justify the additional time and trouble."

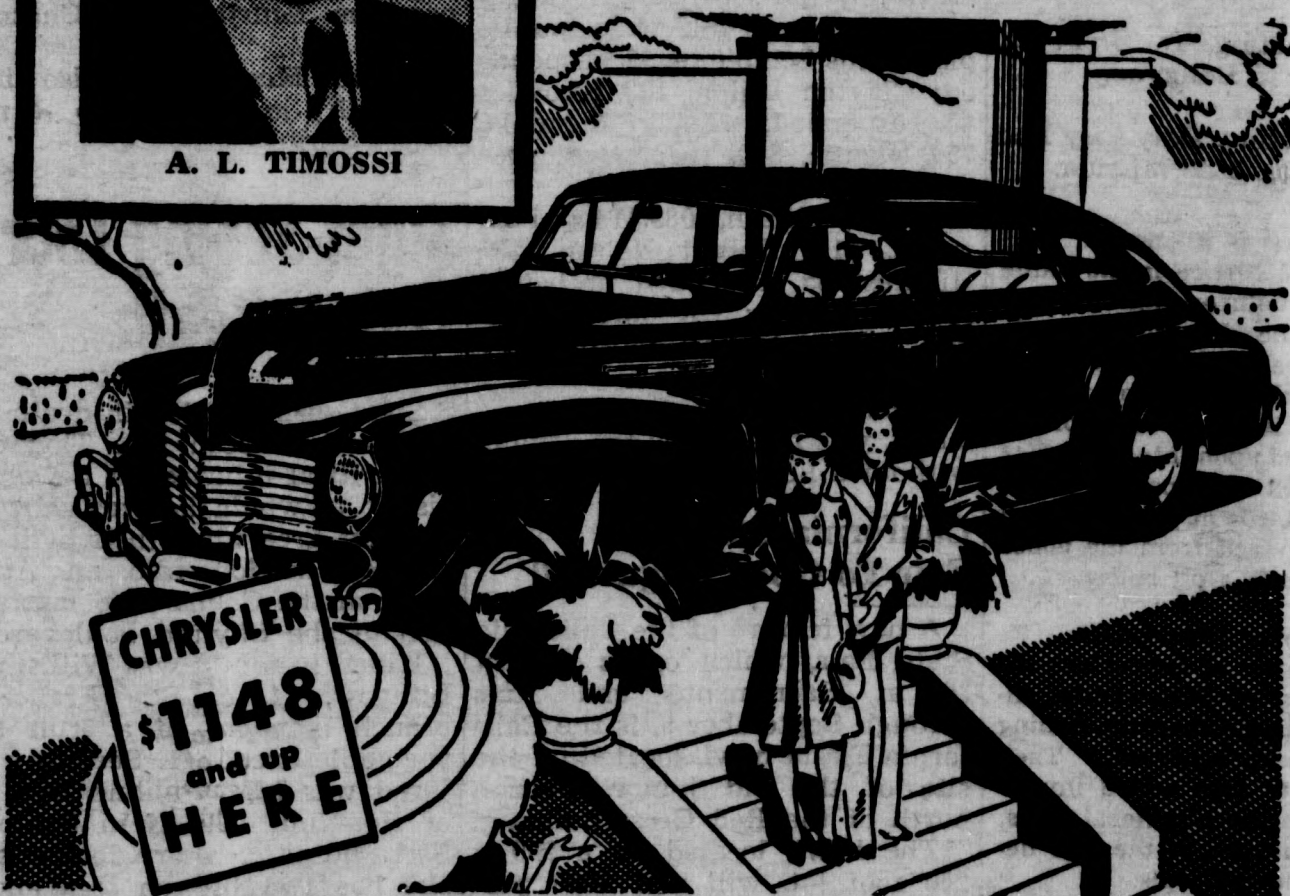

Timossi pointed out that the new Chrysler baked plastic enamel finish is also a factor in high trade-in allowances when the car is turned in.

Towers of Silence

The tower of silence is the name applied to structures built by the Parsees for the disposal of their dead. They are towers about 40 feet high called dakhmas. Below the top of the wall is built a floor of iron grating and upon this the bodies are placed until by exposure to the elements and birds of prey the flesh is entirely removed from the bones and they fall into a pit below.

Newlyweds To Make Home In Daly City

Moe Plansky, 30 Los Olivos avenue, and Miss Frances Kubersky, San Francisco, were married in Reno, Nevada, July 4.

They returned to Daly City last week, following a short honeymoon in Yosemite National park, and will make their home at 61 Los Banos avenue.

Plansky, a well-known local painting contractor, is a graduate of Jefferson Union high school and of St. Ignatius college in San Francisco. He also attended the State Teachers college in San Francisco, and has many friends both in the metropolis and in this community.

Chesneys Enjoy Scenic Vacation Tour

Fire Chief and Mrs. Andrew P. Chesney, 298 Crocker avenue, returned home Thursday evening from a two weeks scenic vacation tour.

Mr. and Mrs. Chesney also visited briefly in Sacramento and Boyes Springs.

Sight-Seeing Tour Ends In Death

Sight-seeing ended in death for a San Franciscan late Thursday and critical injuries for a woman visitor to whom he was showing the Bay Area when their light car crashed headon into an Army truck at the Colma road intersection of the Skyline boulevard.

Killed instantly was William V. Lithgow, 44, of San Francisco, branch manager of a fruit and vegetable exchange. Seriously injured was Miss Pauline Dye, 35, of Honolulu. She is in Junipero Serra hospital, where doctors said she has two broken legs and a skull and back injury.

The car Lithgow was driving south smashed headon into a truck driven by Private John E. Fetherstone, 22, of Fort Scott, San Francisco.

The death brought the county's 1940 death toll to 30, one ahead of this date last year.

OBITUARY

Hold Services For Mrs. Kennedy

One of Daly City's oldest residents, Mrs. Anna C. Kennedy, 6893 Mission street, passed away Friday afternoon at the French hospital in San Francisco.

The widow of the late Joseph Kennedy, Mrs. Kennedy was the mother of nine children, eight of whom live in this community. She was born here, sixty-one years ago, and her mother had lived here twenty years before that.

Funeral services were held Monday morning from Our Lady of Perpetual Help church, with entombment at Holy Cross cemetery. Arrangements were under the direction of W. C. Lasswell and company.

Surviving Mrs. Kennedy are her children, Florence, Eimer, Melvin, Norman, Lawrence, James, Raymond, Mrs. Anna Lagomarsino and Mrs. Josephine Bird. With the exception of James, who resides in Modesto, all are residents of Daly City or Colma.

Mrs. Warrington Succumbs To Illness

Funeral services were conducted Monday morning from the W. C. Lasswell funeral chapel for Mrs. Elizabeth A. Warrington, 6277 Mission street.

Eighty-four years old, Mrs. Warrington died Friday evening at the Community hospital in San Mateo. She had been ill for some time.

Surviving her is the daughter with whom she made her home, Mrs. Rhea MacCormac; a brother-in-law Frank D. Warrington, Spokane; and a sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clare C. Warrington, who came here from their home in Cheyenne, Wyoming.

Interment was in Mountain View cemetery, Oakland.

Hold Final Rites For Geo. Winslow

Final rites for George Winslow, 487 Bellevue avenue, will be conducted at 10 a. m. tomorrow from the W. C. Lasswell funeral chapel. Services will be in charge of a Methodist minister, with interment following at Woodlawn cemetery.

Despondent over ill health and unemployment, Winslow took his own life here early Monday morning. He was killed instantly by a charge from a 12 gauge shotgun which he had placed against his chest.

Neighbors who heard the shot notified the Daly City Police department. His wife was taken to the home of a sister in San Francisco.

Winslow had many friends in this community. In addition to his wife, Mrs. Asenith D. Winslow, he is survived by a brother, Ace Winslow, and a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Wing.

Suicide Claims Second Victim This Week

Suicide claimed its second victim of the week in this area, when Albert Thornton, DeWolf street, San Francisco, parked his car on Skyline boulevard, Monday evening, and shot himself to death. He was found by a passing motorist.

Despondency over ill health was blamed for his act. He was unmarried, and is survived by a brother, John.

Funeral services will be conducted this afternoon from the W. C. Lasswell funeral chapel, with interment at a local cemetery.

Brother Rats Star In Comedy At D. C. Theatre

Romping through the gay Warner Brothers comedy, "An Angel From Texas," which is coming to the Daly City theatre tomorrow, is the gay trio of "Brother Rats"—Eddie Albert, Wayne Morris and Ronald Reagan—and their three comely girl friends—Rosemary Lane, Jane Wyman and Ruth Terry.

The rollicking story of a couple of hicks from the Texas sticks is based on George S. Kaufman's successful play "The Butter and Egg Man."

As Lydia Weston, the pride of Lone Star, Texas, Rosemary Lane plays the stage-struck country girl. Eddie Albert is Peter, her boy friend, who is saving his money to buy a hotel some day.

Lydia leaves for New York, where she covers casting offices to no avail and failing to get a stage job, becomes secretary to two shoe string producers, Marty Allen and Mac McClure, played by Ronald Reagan and Wayne Morris.

When Peter comes to New York with $20,000, looking for a hotel before he asks Lydia to marry him, Marty and Mac go to work on him. They need a backer and decide that Peter is it. Complications set in when Lydia steps into the role Valerie Blayne, played by Ruth Terry, had been given. Valerie is a gangster's sweetheart and threatens trouble when her boy friend gets out of the stir.

Rehearsals indicate that the show will lay the biggest Broadway egg of the season and Marty's wife Marge, played by Jane Wyman, determines to teach her husband a lesson for exploiting the unfortunate yokels. She helps Peter buy the show outright with her own money. When the intended drama is accepted as a hilarious farce, Peter and Lydia are acclaimed the season's comets over Broadway.

Companion feature will be "Show Down," with William Boyd.

De Soto Offers Many Advantages To Vacationist

Judging by inquiries received at touring bureaus, requests for road maps, and all other "straws in the wind" which can be analyzed, the 1940 summer season marks a new high in the number of miles piled up by American motorists on week-end and vacation jaunts.

In the opinion of James E. Donahue, Daly City De Soto-Plymouth dealer, this fact is a challenge to the selling staff because they have a product which offers the vacationist a long list of important advantages.

"For instance," Donahue says, "De Soto's all-weather Aircontrol system, numerous safety features, scientifically balanced ride and convenience items become especially important on long trips.

"In dusty or stormy weather," Donahue points out, "the All-Weather Aircontrol system provides passengers with a flow of fresh, filtered air, even with all the windows closed.

"De Soto's many safety features, including wide-angle vision; safety glass; dual windshield wipers, sun visors and tail lights; Sealed-Beam headlights and many others, lend a comforting sense of security to both driver and passengers.

"And on long trips, Donahue went on to say, "the Floating Ride formula for passenger comfort becomes of first-rank importance for it allows more territory to be covered with less fatigue."

Temporary Lay-Off

The sign on a Louisville church lawn didn't mean members of the flock were weary of well-doing, but it actually read: "No Christian Endeavor until November 15."

SO THIS IS BROADWAY!

So this is Broadway murmurs Eddie Albert while surrounded by an osculatory bevy of brunette beauty. That's what happens in "An Angel From Texas," the new comedy film coming to the Daly City theatre tomorrow.

Report Increase In Home Building

Building activities in Daly City maintained steady averages here this month, as increased construction was reported in nearly every part of town.

Beautiful new homes were offered for sale this week by three Daly City contractor-builders. Built by Daly City labor from lumber and materials purchased in Daly City, the homes are of modern design, yet carry the individual touch so often missing in this era of large-scale home construction.

George Hammer, 67 Willits street, has just completed an attractive new 5-room home at 162 Willits street, near the Vista Grande park and playground. The main features of this home are a large back yard, patio entrance, hardwood floors throughout, full tile, landscaped frontage and plenty of closet space. FHA terms bring this home well within the reach of the average family.

Lyal Ingersoll, 439 Crocker avenue, offers a modern 5-room home, recently completed at 451 Crocker avenue, featuring light, airy rooms throughout, hardwood floors, tile bath and many other modern conveniences.

W. E. Curtis, 1147 Brunswick street, presents a San Bruno home for sale this week. It is a five room bungalow with service porch. Separate two-car garage, and storage room are among its many other features. This home will make an ideal residence for the automobile commuter's family.

CENSUS

perity era, despite the depression years, although the rate of increase was cut from 110 per cent to 21 per cent.

Past census figures: 1930, 77,405; 1920, 36,781; 1910, 26,585; 1900, 12,094; 1890, 10,087; 1880, 8660; 1870, 6635; 1860, 3214.

The 1940 total was about 5000 higher than the estimate prepared by the San Mateo County Planning commission.

The commission's estimate was 103,900, based on school attendance, motor vehicle registration, past rate of growth and migration to the state.

Rough Customer

A. C. Cooper donated Cricket, a six-year-old rhesus, to the Fort Worth, Texas, zoo. During his first 10 minutes in the "monkey island" colony at the zoo Cricket slapped down seven other monkeys, whipped two raccoons and grabbed three fish from the moat surrounding the island.

DARING ICE FOLLIES STAR

Harris Legg, one of the most accomplished performers in the 1940 Ice Follies. Spectacular jumps over hurdles are his specialty. He is also the gentleman who maneuvers the amazing giant snowman in this year's revue.

Ace Entertainment

Biggest attraction for entertainment seekers continued this week, according to boxoffice reports, to be the glittering Ice Follies of 1940, all-new edition of the famous skating show, now appearing nightly at Winterland, at Post and Steiner streets, on San Francisco's mainland.

The smooth-flowing, richly-costumed revue is steadily adding to its audience total of more than 1,500,000 within the past twelve months.

The current edition of the Ice Follies is entirely different from the one which delighted "400,000 persons last year. Production, costumes, lighting, music and all features have been changed, but the same great cast of international skating stars remains, it was announced.

Amazing to those who see the Ice Follies for the first time is the transposition of dancing routines to ice skating. Experts explain that figure skating is based upon dance steps, with a rapid and continuous rhythm almost indescribably beautiful. Those who have seen the show point out that the seemingly effortless flow of action creates the illusion of dancing in the air.

Ice Follies tickets are available for every night at Winterland, Walnut 0112; at Sherman Clay box offices in San Francisco and Oakland, and by mail order addressed to Winterland, Post and Steiner streets, San Francisco.

U. S. To Aid Fight Against Erosion

The U. S. department of agriculture this week agreed to supply 90,000 trees, materials for eight silt traps, tractors, trucks and tools required by the San Mateo County Soil Conservation district.

The agreement, contained in a supplemental memorandum received by the county engineer, means that work will start in time to complete initial operations before the rainy season, he predicted.

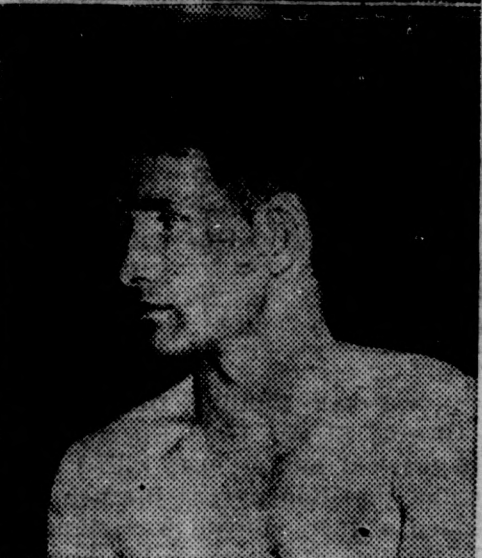

In lieu of CCC labor originally planned, the WPA will be called upon to plant trees and build the dams.

Ivy's Symbol

The ivy has always been a symbol of the clinging love of woman. The altar of Hymen, the Greek god of marriage, whose blessing was invoked at every wedding, was kept green with ivy. In the legend of Tristan and Isolde, two ivy vines, entwining, are a symbol of the undying union of the lovers.

CONGRESSMAN SPEAKS IN DALY CITY TODAY

Welterweight Battle

Welterweight Champion Henry Armstrong (above) will meet Lew Jenkins in a 12-round non-title match at the Polo Grounds in New York city tonight. Jenkins won the lightweight title in May with sensational three-round knockout of Lou Ambers.

Daly City and Colma will fete a national congressman at luncheon today.

John Z. Anderson, representative from California's eighth congressional district, will address this community at an informal session following the luncheon, which is scheduled for 12:15 p. m. at the Colma Italian cafe, 7379 Mission street.

Hundreds of friends and spectators are expected to greet the congressman's arrival. There is still time to reserve a place at the luncheon, by telephoning RAnd. 3636.

Following the luncheon, the public is cordially invited to hear Anderson's discussion of national defense problems. No charge will be made.

Anderson, a member of the House Naval Affairs committee, arrived in California by plane on Sunday, and will leave again for Washington, D. C., at the end of the week.

Following his appearance here, Anderson will be guest of honor at a tea in San Mateo, and at dinner tonight at the Benjamin Franklin hotel.

At 8 p. m. tonight, Anderson will again speak, this time at a huge rally which will be staged for him at the San Mateo Junior college. Speakers for Wendell Willkie and Hiram Johnson will also be present, and the public is cordially urged to attend.

Tomorrow Anderson will visit in Monterey county and will lead the parade at the Salinas rodeo in the afternoon. Friday, he will devote to San Benito county and Hollister.

Hit Musical
Revue Of 1940
To Open Monday

"The all American hit musical revue of 1940" has been the unanimous description of the leading national magazines and columnists when writing about "Meet The People," scheduled to open a limited engagement at the Geary theatre in San Francisco on Monday evening, July 22. It is the show of young people who have become nationally famous because they made Hollywood take them and like it.

At that time the production, which is a topical musical revue, will have registered a run of 30 weeks in Hollywood, by far the longest ever achieved by any revue on the Pacific Coast. When the original company was booked to come North another troupe was recruited and it will carry on at the old stand.

Without exception, the cast is composed of young professionals who had come to Hollywood in quest of fame and fortune but hadn't been able to get a hearing from the moguls of the film industry.

When the word got about that a newly formed organization called the Hollywood Theatre alliance intended to put on a topical revue and would select its cast on the basis of actual talent rather than previous record, virtually all the ambitious youngsters in town flocked to the auditions.

The result was the assembling of a cast so brilliant that when the show opened all the studios in town began offering contracts to the youngsters. Only two of the 27 members of the cast deserted the show for the movie gold. Two others also signed long-term film contracts but with the proviso that they be permitted to remain with "Meet The People" until the end of the run.

Einar Hanson Makes National Sporting News

A Daly City amateur goifer, Einar Hanson, 221 Hillcrest drive, made national sporting news last week when he qualified on the Harding Park links in San Francisco to compete in the National Public Links championship, which will begin Monday at Detroit.

One of the four entrants to qualify from San Francisco, Hanson took second place with a score of 69-71-140. He was the longest driver on the field, outdistancing even Bill Fritz, Northern California champ, who led the field with 69-69-138.

Hanson's free trip to Detroit as one of the eleven entrants from this district began Monday morning. He is not expected to return home until late next week.

An employee of the Kraft Cheese association, Hanson is a well-known local resident. His wife, Mrs. Hanson, before her marriage Miss Mildred Swan, is a graduate of Jefferson Union high school and was former secretary to Judge Wade H. Clay. Hanson's golfing achievements have made many friends for him throughout the district, and numerous trophies prove his ability.

Olivet Wallops Broadway 13 to 2

Olivet Memorial softball ten handled themselves in a very creditable manner against the Broadway Merchants of Burlingame, Tuesday night of last week. They scored a 13 to 2 victory over the Merchants.
